

TIMOTHÉE CHALAMET WORE JAEGER-LECOULTRE AT THE 2018 GOLDEN GLOBES

During the long awaited 75th presentation of the Golden Globes ceremony held in Los Angeles yesterday, Timothée Chalamet appeared wearing a Jaeger-LeCoultre Reverso Classic Medium Duoface Small Second.

First-time Golden Globes nominee, the American actor was nominated for Best Performance by an Actor in a Motion Picture Drama for his starring role in Luca Guadagnino's "Call Me By Your Name".

The film set in Northern Italy in the year 1983 has been receiving praise from critics and fans around the world. Timothée Chalamet plays Elio, a Jewish Italian seventeen year-old who romances his father's older assistant, played by Armie Hammer.

Timothée Chalamet has already won the Best Actor Award for his role at the New York Film Critics Circle Award (2017), the Breakthrough Actor prize at the Gotham Independent Film Award (2017) and the Rising Star Award at Palm Springs International Film Festival (2018).

About Timothée Chalamet

Timothée Chalamet stars in "Call Me By Your Name" for director Luca Guadagnino. He has been named Best Actor by the New York Film Critics Circle and the LA Film Critics Association, was named the Best Breakthrough Performance by the National Board of Review, has been nominated as Best Actor by the Screen Actors Guild, and has been nominated for the BAFTA Rising Star Award. Timothée also appears in Greta Gerwig's "Lady Bird" opposite Saoirse Ronan, and in Scott Cooper's Hostiles opposite Christian Bale and Rosamund Pike. He plays the lead role in "Hot Summer Nights" for director Elijah Bynum which premiered at SXSW in April and will be released by A24 in the Spring. Timothée just finished shooting the lead in Woody Allen's "A Rainy Day In New York" opposite Elle Fanning and Selena Gomez. And he recently wrapped filming the title role in "Beautiful Boy" opposite Steve Carrell; the film is directed by Felix van Groeningen and produced by Plan B. Both films will be released by Amazon Studios in the Fall.

In 2016, Timothée opened to rave reviews and received Drama League and Clive Barnes nominations and the Lucille Lortel Award for Best Actor for his performance in the world premiere of John Patrick Shanley's play Prodigal Son. He also received glowing reviews for his performance in the independent film "Miss Stevens", starring opposite Lily Rabe for director Julia Hart, which premiered at SXSW.