

INTRODUCING

THE RENDEZ-VOUS JEWELLERY NIGHT & DAY AND RENDEZ-VOUS HOUR-MINUTE

TWO DISTINCTIVE EXPRESSIONS OF FEMININITY

KEY FACTS:

- Jewellery as a timekeeping art: the Rendez-Vous Jewellery Night & Day masterfully fuses miniature hand-painting, precision gem-setting, and the poetic Night & Day complication; adorned with 48 baguette-cut diamonds, it epitomizes Jaeger-LeCoultre's unparalleled mastery in feminine watchmaking
- Contemporary elegance: the Rendez-Vous Hour-Minute reimagines the collection's signature codes with a refined aesthetic tailored for modern femininity; at a mere 7.47mm, one of the slimmest timepieces in the Rendez-Vous collection
- Exceptional craftsmanship: a showcase for Jaeger-LeCoultre's Métiers Rares™ expertise, the collection highlights unique mastery through intricate decoration and meticulous hand-finishing

Jaeger-LeCoultre unveils two new Rendez-Vous models, highlighting the collection's versatility and distinct expressions of feminine elegance.

The Rendez-Vous Jewellery Night & Day, in a limited edition of just 10 pieces. Its multi-layered dial, miniature-painted in lacquer, is encircled by baguette-cut diamonds, all housed within a 34mm platinum case, offering an evocative new expression of the Night & Day complication.

In contrast, the Rendez-Vous Hour-Minute presents the collection's signature feminine elegance in a new, minimalistic style. It features a 29mm case in steel or 18K (750/1000) pink gold, a smooth polished bezel, an engraved caseback and a supple 'second skin' bracelet available in matching metal or polished alligator leather.

DEFINING MODERN FEMININITY

When introduced in 2012, at a time when very few mechanical watches were created exclusively for feminine wrists, the first Rendez-Vous was hailed as a groundbreaking timepiece, combining elegance and beauty with technical sophistication.

This approach has defined the Maison since its earliest years, when it created watches for women as well as men. Recognising the aesthetic and technical potential of timepieces that could also be worn as jewels, Jaeger-LeCoultre has continually responded to women's evolving desires, reflected societal shifts and anticipated new trends. A contemporary expression of this philosophy, the Rendez-Vous collection embodies a modern and confident vision of femininity. Fourteen years after its debut, two new Rendez-Vous models demonstrate the art of subtle evolution, reinterpreting the collection's original codes while remaining true to its spirit.

RENDEZ-VOUS JEWELLERY NIGHT & DAY

A rendez-vous between art and eternity: introducing a 34 mm platinum 950 case to the collection, the Rendez-Vous Jewellery Night & Day unites the technical and aesthetic sophistication of fine watchmaking with the richness of gem-setting and miniature hand-painting.

In a delightful ode to nature, the dial features an image of an Asian Paradise Flycatcher perched on a branch of Korean Dogwood blossom. Hand-painted in lacquer on a transparent sapphire dial, the composition brings to life one tiny brushstroke at a time, creating lifelike detail and a remarkable sense of visual depth. On a disc, set beneath the image of the bird, an ethereal rendition of the moon and sun is also hand-painted in lacquer. A new expression of the Night & Day complication, this disc completes one rotation every 24 hours, tracing the daily transition from sunlight to moonlight. This profound immersion masterfully crafts the perception of two distinct dials – one for day, one for night – each gracefully claiming a third of the total dial's expanse.

Defining the asymmetrical dial layout, the sinuous Floral numerals – a signature of the Rendez-Vous collection – are graduated in size to form a crescent that wraps around the upper section. Beneath the applied numerals, a fine oval-shaped ring draws the eye to the delicately painted image and Night & Day display. The captivating tableau is enhanced by diamonds, set into the platinum case by the specialist gem-setter in the Manufacture's in-house Métiers Rares™ atelier: the bezel lights up with a glittering circle of 48 baguette-cut diamonds; these are complemented by brilliant-cut diamonds on the case sides and lugs.

In keeping with the Rendez-Vous codes, an additional brilliant-cut diamond is reverse-set in the crown.

This poetic expression of femininity is brought to life by Jaeger-LeCoultre's self-winding Calibre 733, whose finely decorated components are revealed through the transparent sapphire caseback. The automatic movement features a rotor, meticulously crafted from 22-carat gold (916/1000), a testament to horological excellence.

A blue alligator strap with a glowing 'satin' finish is matched to the blues of the dial and features Jaeger-LeCoultre's proprietary interchangeability system, enabling the owner to change straps in an instant to create a different look if wished. The Rendez-Vous Jewellery Night & Day is unveiled as a truly exceptional offering, produced in a highly exclusive series of only 10 pieces.

RENDEZ-VOUS HOUR-MINUTE

Daily wear, redefined: with the introduction of the Rendez-Vous Hour-Minute, Jaeger-LeCoultre pares the Rendez-Vous aesthetic back to its essence, achieving a fine balance: minimalistic in spirit yet finely detailed; decorative without being elaborate; perfect for daily wear while dressy enough for evening. The 29 mm case, offered in either steel or 18K (750/1000) pink gold, features a convex bezel – polished, rather than diamond-set. The closed metal caseback is engraved with a stylised image of the sun.

Displaying hours and minutes only, the dials are designed as a series of concentric circles and feature the Rendez-Vous signature Floral numerals and sunray guilloché texture. On the outer edge of this, diamonds have a discreet presence as the hour markers, in keeping with the collection's codes, while the inner edge is defined by a ring of deeply textured embossing.

The precious metal case of the 18K (750/1000) pink gold model is matched by the colour of the hands and numerals, which harmonise with the warm, creamy tone of the dial. The tone-on-tone palette is enhanced by an alligator strap in a soft taupe colour with a subtly glowing 'satin' finish. The strap also features the signature interchangeability system. Infused with a delicate jewellery essence, this timepiece is destined for daily wear, providing a discreet yet unwavering presence through every facet of life.

Metal bracelet, with a new aesthetic: The steel model, where blue hands contrast with the snow-white dial and cool tone of the case metal, is fitted with a new style of bracelet. Introduced exclusively for the Rendez-Vous collection in 2025. Its modern lozenge-shaped links are designed for maximum flexibility, so that it drapes around the wrist as softly as a ribbon. The links are highly polished, with discreet areas of brushing to create visual depth and the bracelet is fitted with Jaeger-

LeCoultre's proprietary interchangeability mechanism to enable quick changes with a simple hand gesture.

More than simply marking the time, the new Rendez-Vous models offer two graceful and distinctly different interpretations of timekeeping for women. From the intricate detail and precious gem-setting of the Rendez-Vous Jewellery Night & Day to the relaxed, everyday elegance of the Rendez-Vous Hour-Minute, these new expressions of femininity are crafted to capture the imagination.
